Doodle for Google

This year's Doodle for Google theme is I am grateful for...

Taking a step back to think about what we're grateful for can be a great way to take care of our mental health and refocus on what's most important. What moments, people, places and things are special to you? What or whom can you not imagine living without? What are the things that get you through the day? Our theme this year encourages you to share what you appreciate most. Enter a Doodle

Prizes: Win a $30,000 college scholarship, a $50,000 tech package for your school/non-profit organization, and your artwork displayed for a day (24 hours) on Google.com!

If you would like Mrs. Felder to mail your entry for you, please submit your doodle to her by Tuesday, February 28.
